Activity Announcement

STEM

We are excited to announce that STEM will be at Carnival Marra inspiring individuals with a number of activities and challenges!

Meet the Team

Michael Wood Williams

In my role as County Commissioner I have a responsibility to support and empower the volunteers who are the people that make Scouts a reality.

I work hard to deliver our Skills for Life strategy to bring communities

David Charlton

I have been a Scout volunteer all my adult life holding many roles across Group, District and County. My current role sees me as a Scout Leader which is great fun working with the young people.

together and contribute towards a better society

As part of the carnival marra team I have an incredible opportunity to help deliver a brilliant programme of activities and contribute to an extraordinary event that can create lifelong memories.
