

Role: Photographer

Responsible to: Photographer Team Leader

Responsible for: None.

The role of a photographer is to capture the moment of Marra Camp through the lens of a camera during the event. The photographers are to be able to work in a small team and communicate effectively with each other.

After a day of photographs are taken, all images are to be given to the Photographer Team Leader to be processed. This will be to add the Marra & Scout Branding, as well as edit images as and where it is required.

It is desirable that photographers, where possible use professional camera's & mix of lenses
